

Boost Me Up For Safety

Boost Me Up For Safety

Did you know that...

Seat belts fit adults not children?

A child should use a booster until 9-12 years old.

Did you know that...

Seat belts fit adults not children?

A child should use a booster until 9-12 years old.

If you're not sure whether or not your child needs a booster seat, try this simple check. A "No" answer to any of the questions indicates that your child should use a booster seat to travel safely in a vehicle.

If you're not sure whether or not your child needs a booster seat, try this simple check. A "No" answer to any of the questions indicates that your child should use a booster seat to travel safely in a vehicle.

Is the child at least 1.45 m (4' 9") tall?  Yes  No

Is the child at least 1.45 m (4' 9") tall?  Yes  No

Does the child sit back against the vehicle seat?  Yes  No

Does the child sit back against the vehicle seat?  Yes  No

Do the child's knees bend over the seat edge, feet flat on the floor?  Yes  No

Do the child's knees bend over the seat edge, feet flat on the floor?  Yes  No

Is the shoulder belt centred on the child's chest?  Yes  No

Is the shoulder belt centred on the child's chest?  Yes  No

Does the lap belt sit on the child's thighs?  Yes  No

Does the lap belt sit on the child's thighs?  Yes  No

Can the child stay seated this way for the entire trip?  Yes  No

Can the child stay seated this way for the entire trip?  Yes  No